Sex: Male
Race: White
Height: 5'10"
Weight: 170
Hair Color: Brown
Eye Color: Green

Date Missing: Falcon Heights, MN
Missing From: 02/26/2009

Circumstances: Harold Schroetter went missing from his residence in Falcon Heights, MN on February 26, 2009. He was a postal worker in St. Paul and had never missed work unexplained prior to his disappearance. Harold was in the process of ending his relationship with his live-in girlfriend and changing the beneficiaries of his estate at the time of his disappearance. He was also excited to recently find out he was to become a grandfather. Authorities located Schroetter's red Chrysler, pictured below, under suspicious circumstances in the area of Arlington Ave, and Jackson St. in St. Paul on March 1, 2009. Authorities believed foul play was involved in the disappearance of Harold Schroetter and he is believed to be deceased at this time. Through extensive investigation, authorities have been unable to locate Schroetter. Blood from Schroetter was found in the trunk of his girlfriend's car, which is the white Chrysler 300, pictured below. A new trunk liner was found to have been purchased and replaced shortly after his disappearance.
