Susan Swedell, 19 at the time of her disappearance, left work after her shift at the K-Mart in Oak Park Heights. It was a snowy night and she stopped at a gas station at Manning & County Road 14 (formerly Hwy 5) near her home in Lake Elmo. She asked the station attendant if she could leave her car there because she was having car trouble. Susan then got into a car with an unknown man. Witnesses describe him as unshaven, tall with shoulder length curly hair, and wearing a leather jacket. Susan, who was wearing a mini skirt and black down jacket, has not been heard from since.
