

Trace Evidence Collection and Packaging

Druggist/Paper folds (For paint, fibers, hairs, and debris)

Call the Trace Evidence Section if you need further assistance
651-363-0572

Trace Evidence Collection and Packaging

Post-It Note Fold (For fibers and hairs)
Do not use on paint

Tape Sealed Envelope
Ensure all seams are sealed

Call the Trace Evidence Section if you need further assistance
651-363-0572

Trace Evidence Collection and Packaging

Improperly Sealed Envelope

Debris Leaking Out of Unsealed Corner

Call the Trace Evidence Section if you need further assistance
651-363-0572

Trace Evidence Collection and Packaging

Use tape lifts to collect hairs and fibers and other debris from areas of interest (e.g. furniture, cars, etc.) Do not use to collect paint.

Adhesive lifter- Can be used for collecting trace materials from large

Clear Acetate Sheets can be used for placing tape on or as a backing for the adhesive lifters.

Secure tape in a box to prevent further balling
(Tape holes in bottom of fire arm boxes to prevent the loss of Trace Evidence)

Call the Trace Evidence Section if you need further assistance
651-363-0572

Trace Evidence Collection and Packaging

Protect areas that may have been used to pry open doors, break windows, open safes, etc. by taping a paper bag around the end.
Securing it to a box prevents the loss of latent prints

Wrap broken pieces and place in a box

Call the Trace Evidence Section if you need further assistance
651-363-0572

Trace Evidence Collection and Packaging

Place bulbs in the bottom of Styrofoam-type cup. Cut the bottoms out of several more cups and stack them on top. Finally, place another cup (with bottom intact) on top and tape them all together.

Call the Trace Evidence Section if you need further assistance
651-363-0572

Trace Evidence Collection and Packaging

Tape all of the seams of the box to prevent the escape of Trace Evidence

Call the Trace Evidence Section if you need further assistance
651-363-0572