

Standard DL/ID Identification Requirements

Minnesota Rules Parts 7410.0100 to 7410.0600

To apply for a Minnesota driver's license, identification card, or permit, you may present either:

A Minnesota driver's license, identification card, or permit that is current or expired for five years or less if it has a photo or one year or less if it does not have a photo.

If you do not have one of the items listed above, you must present one primary and one secondary document.

The primary document must contain your full name and the month, day and year of your birth. Any document not in English must be accompanied by a qualified English translation.

If the name on your Minnesota driver's license, identification card or permit has changed or the names on your primary and secondary documents do not match, you must also present proof of your legal name change(s).

If you have previously had a Minnesota driver's license, identification card, or permit in a name that is different from your current name, then you must present proof of legal name change. Acceptable proof consists of certified marriage certificates, certified divorce decrees or other certified court orders. Divorce decrees or other court orders must specify the name change. Your name change documents need to show a clear link between your primary and secondary documents.

The name on the Minnesota driver's license, identification card or permit that is issued to you will be the name on the primary document or legal name change document.

If you are a temporary United States resident, you may need to show additional proof of your lawful admission period, such as form I-20, DS-2019, I-797 or other official immigration document or receipt.

Documents are subject to verification and may not be accepted if laminated or otherwise altered.
