

Date: _____ Name: _____

Student Conduct and Students with Special Needs Survey (Cycle Two)

True or False

Circle the appropriate response for the corresponding statement.

- T F 1. The length of time a student with special needs is transported shall be appropriate to the physical, mental and emotional well being of the student.
- T F 2. An IEP is an Individual Educational Plan which documents the level of special services a student requires.
- T F 3. Student management involves a commitment to working with students to clarify the problems and find solutions.
- T F 4. Each driver and aide of students with special needs must be CPR and first aid certified.
- T F 5. All students with special needs must have a parent or adult present at the student's drop-off location.
- T F 6. Most commonly, junior high or middle school students are the most difficult students to manage.
- T F 7. The driver of the school bus is ultimately responsible for ensuring that all riders are properly seated and appropriately secured.
- T F 8. The best way to deal with student misconduct is to get the principal involved immediately.
- T F 9. You should confront a student that has a weapon.
- T F 10. Students do not need to be aware of the reasons why bus safety rules exist.
- T F 11. Reinforcing good behavior is one of the best methods to have a quiet and calm bus.
- T F 12. Use of reasonable force (restraint) is only acceptable when a student is in danger of harming themselves or another person.
- T F 13. The category of special needs includes but is not limited to: deaf or hard of hearing, traumatic brain injury, autism and speech language impairment.
- T F 14. Students do not always understand things they say are offensive to other students.
- T F 15. The school bus driver can discharge a student anywhere along the route if they are causing problems.
- T F 16. Incidents involving serious misconduct must be reported to the Minnesota Department of Public Safety.
- T F 17. The school bus ride is not an extension of the school day.
- T F 18. People transporting students with special needs must be accommodating and flexible
- T F 19. Drivers who transport students using wheelchairs require special training on how to properly secure the wheelchair and the student.
- T F 20. Drivers should introduce themselves to the school officials who handle student issues on the bus during the first week of driving the assigned route.

