Minnesota Violent Crime Coordinating Council

Key Elements of a Statewide Strategic Framework

C/o Minnesota Department of Public Safety,
Office of Justice Programs
Adopted June 13, 2012

The Minnesota Violent Crime Coordinating Council 2012 Statewide Strategy

A Move Toward Coordination and Strategic Thinking

A RICH HISTORY OF PROTECTING THE PUBLIC

Multijurisdictional Task Forces - Since 1988, the Minnesota Department of Public Safety Office of Justice Programs has funded multijurisdictional narcotics and gang task forces with funding provided by the State of Minnesota and the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance. This funding supports programs that integrate law enforcement agencies and prosecutors to conduct effective, multijurisdictional drug and violent crime investigations and prosecutions. Federal and state resources provide $9 million in funding to support the operations of 23 multijurisdictional task forces in the SFY 12-13 biennium. This is in addition to significant local contributions of cash and personnel, as well as in-kind contributions.

From 1988 to 2004, the Narcotics Enforcement Coordinating Committee (NECC), an informal advisory body, provided guidance to the Commissioner of Public Safety on matters relating to the multijurisdictional drug task forces. The 2005 Minnesota Legislature passed legislation to formalize the coordination of gang and drug enforcement efforts throughout the state. The Gang and Drug Oversight Council was established to provide leadership for those efforts.

The 2010 Minnesota Legislature subsequently established the Violent Crime Coordinating Council ("Council") to provide guidance related to the investigation and prosecution of gang and drug crime. The council provides direction and oversight to the multijurisdictional task forces and enforcement teams located throughout the state. This new council replaced the Gang and Drug Oversight Council.

The Council is composed of 19 voting members, including four citizen members and 15 members representing federal, state and local law enforcement and prosecution agencies. The council's primary duty is to "develop an overall strategy to ameliorate the harm caused to the public by gang and drug crime within the state of Minnesota." In addition, the council works closely with the Commissioner of Public Safety and is charged with additional responsibilities that include:

- Development of an operating procedures and policies manual to guide gang and drug investigations;
- Development of processes to collect and share investigative data;

- Identification and recommendation of an individual to serve as the statewide gang and drug coordinator;
- Development of grant eligibility criteria and application review process;
- Adoption of objective criteria and identifying characteristics for use in determining whether individuals are or may be members of gangs involved in criminal activity.
- Development of policies to prohibit the improper use of personal characteristics to target individuals for law enforcement, prosecution or forfeiture actions; and
- Recommendation for multijurisdictional task force funding termination for those not operating in a manner consistent with the best interest of the state or the public;

Statewide Strategy

FIRST YEAR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The Council first convened in December 2010 and took initial steps towards a comprehensive approach to gang and drug enforcement in the state. To date, the Council has:

- Adopted By-laws to govern the work of the council.
- Established a subcommittee structure to address the duties and issues facing the council.
- Recruited citizen members and devised communication strategies to inform community members and solicit input.
- Reviewed and approved the "Request for Proposal" and review process for 2012 task force funding.
- Amended the current Operating Procedures and Guidelines Manual to ensure that proper investigative protocols and record-keeping are used by all funded task forces. This included revisions to the impartial policing section that prohibits the improper use of personal characteristics to target individuals.
- Reviewed performance data and monitoring reports for all of the multijurisdictional task forces.
- Convened three community forums to hear subject matter experts, law enforcement, and community members' comments on the current criteria and the changes that they believe are necessary for determining whether individuals are or may be members of gangs involved in criminal activity.
- Assessed potential information sharing systems for use by task forces.

NOTE: Additional information on the work of the Council can be found at:

CHARTING THE COURSE FOR THE FUTURE

On November 2–3, 2011, the Council and invited professional and community experts gathered for a planning session to determine the strategic elements necessary to address the harm caused to the public by gang and drug crime within the State of Minnesota. Thirty individuals worked with a facilitator in both large group activities and small discussion groups. Participants represented statewide, rural, metro, and suburban constituencies and represented subject matter expertise in law enforcement, prosecution, community involvement, gang intervention and corrections.

The objectives for the session were to:

- Understand current and emerging trends in gang and drug crimes,
- Identify stakeholder perspectives on key trends,
- Determine elements of vision, priorities, recommendations, and roles, and
- Develop a tactical plan for the coming year.

The result has informed the Council's development and implementation of the following statewide strategic framework:

1. There is a need for a community-led paradigm shift and broader collaboration between criminal justice agencies and community organizations.

- There needs to be a realization that the harm caused to the public by gang and drug crime is not just a law enforcement problem.
- It is critical for law enforcement and other criminal justice agencies to earn public trust and participation through proactive engagement and an effort to create a shared understanding of the issues and goals.
- Community ownership and representation will help to establish and promote healthy community norms and reduce the demand for drugs and the tolerance of gangs and criminal activity.
- An opportunity exists for partnerships between public and private organizations with similar goals, particularly for prevention and intervention activities or services.
- Success will require a focused effort to reduce language and other barriers with cultural and ethnic groups.

TACTICAL PLAN FOR 2012: Clarify mutual expectations between citizens, council members and task forces. Develop a community engagement strategy.

2. A centralized information and intelligence sharing system is a key component for efficient and effective investigation and prosecution of drug, gang and related violent crime.

- Because individuals and organized groups do not confine their criminal activity to limited geographic areas, timely sharing of information and resources across jurisdictional borders is essential to public safety.
- Coordinated investigative efforts will also provide deconfliction information for enhanced officer safety.
- To address valid privacy concerns, information access should be controlled, oversight must be in place, and regular audits should be conducted to ensure appropriate use. Accountability will be based upon concrete standards for performance and consequences when warranted.
- The Council supports the selective, appropriate, and secure sharing of information among law enforcement and any legislative changes necessary to accomplish that goal.

TACTICAL PLAN FOR 2012: Determine the commitment of key stakeholders and link with those working to modify Minnesota Statutes Chapter 13 to include a classification for criminal intelligence data.

3. An effective strategy requires continual adaptation to increasing complexity and change in drug and gang crime.

- The Council believes that drug crime will continue to evolve in terms of access and self-manufacturing and that hybridization of gangs will continue.
- Law enforcement must move from traditional gang and drug investigative protocols to non-traditional techniques. Proactive, intelligence-driven strategies will replace reactive enforcement, and advancements in technology will change the way that investigations are conducted.
- The focus and priority must be on the most violent and/or habitual offenders.

- Training is a critical component and must be funded.

TACTICAL PLAN FOR 2012: Monitor trends identified by task forces, raise awareness and identify resources and evidence-based best practices for response.

4. Gang and drug education, prevention, intervention and treatment efforts are an important component of an overall statewide strategy.

- The development and implementation of an overall statewide strategy to address substance abuse and drug and gang prevention cannot be the sole responsibility of the Council, but criminal justice stakeholders are key and they must provide leadership while partnering with others in the planning process.
- The Council will encourage the efforts of task forces to use existing resources and personnel wherever possible to perform public outreach and prevention education in the community.
- The Council will support law enforcement and community partnerships in a coordinated effort to prevent gang and drug involvement.
- The Council supports increased access to treatment options to help break the cycle of addiction, crime, and violence.

TACTICAL PLAN FOR 2012: The Council will disseminate educational materials to task forces statewide in support of local gang and drug prevention efforts and will establish performance measures to monitor success.

5. The existing task force model must be examined and a determination made as to whether changes are appropriate.

- The nature of criminal activity may require fewer task forces that are more strategically placed, with additional participation by analysts, law enforcement specialists, prosecutors, and community corrections personnel.
- There should be a role for community organizations to work with the task force to mobilize community members in response to community violence.

- While there is a need for all task forces to comply with best practice procedures, there will always need to be flexibility to address regional and local needs in combating of violent crime.

TACTICAL PLAN FOR 2012: The Council determined it would table this issue for future examination.

6. The continuation of successful multijurisdictional task force efforts in combating violent crime requires sustainable external funding that adds to the resources that local jurisdictions currently provide.

- Local agencies currently bear most of the costs of sworn personnel assigned to task forces. Multijurisdictional investigations often require supplemental funding given the specialized nature of the work and expanded enforcement areas.
- A long-term funding commitment must be established at the state and federal levels to ensure that task forces receive the resources necessary to maintain operations.
- The viability of establishing dedicated funds to create a stable, long-term funding stream for multijurisdictional task force operations must be examined.
- Resources for technology and equipment infrastructure investments must be identified and made available.
- There is a need to create a wide variety of outreach and marketing documents that promote the impact of task forces. These can be utilized at the local level to support efforts to increase local resources dedicated to the program.
- Grant funding should be awarded through a fair, equitable, and objective process that rewards performance that is consistent with statewide goals.

TACTICAL PLAN FOR 2012: The Council will determine how much funding is needed for annual grants and necessary infrastructure investments. The Council will research options for the funding of task forces at the local, state, federal and private levels and develop a strategy to execute a comprehensive plan.

Conclusion

Gang activity, drug abuse, drug trafficking and related violent crime continue to pose significant threats to the safety and well-being of the citizens of Minnesota. Multijurisdictional task forces have proven to be a very effective law enforcement strategy.

The continuation of multijurisdictional efforts and the implementation of the key components outlined in this strategy will not happen without funding beyond what local jurisdictions can provide. Without outside support, many task forces report they will not be able to continue operations. Thus, given shifting federal priorities, reliable and sufficient funding remains a critical, yet uncertain, strategic component. A long-term commitment must be established at the state and local levels to ensure that task forces receive the necessary funding to maintain operations.

Guided by this statewide strategy and supported by a reliable funding stream, multijurisdictional task forces working cooperatively with the Violent Crime Coordinating Council can achieve even greater results.

October 25, 2012

Dear Criminal Justice Partner,

In accord with the attached letter, I am pleased to inform you that the attached 9-point gang criteria has been officially approved and adopted by DPS Commissioner Ramona Dohman.

As you know, these newly adopted criteria replace the prior 10-point gang criteria and are effective as of October 2, 2012. One of the changes I would like to highlight is that the definition of a "confirmed gang member" as used within the new criteria has been narrowed to gang members who have been adjudicated or convicted of a crime of violence as defined by Minn. Stat. s. 624.712, subd. 5. If you are interested in further information regarding the development of the new criteria, please refer to the Violent Crime Coordinating Council's webpage at:

<https://dps.mn.gov/divisions/ojp/Pages/violent-crimes-coordinating-council.aspx>

I encourage you to share and distribute the criteria within your agency and/or among key stakeholders. As noted by Commissioner Dohman, the adoption of the new criteria should begin your agency's efforts to train all who would use and implement the criteria. I further encourage you to devise strategies for implementing other related aspects that were supported by a strong consensus among community members and other stakeholders during the development of the criteria. These include parental notification after law enforcement contact with juveniles suspected of gang activity, gang violence prevention, and effective intervention efforts. As always, such strategies should be implemented without jeopardizing public or officer safety.

Going forward, the repository for entries in line with the new criteria remains to be determined. The Violent Crime Coordinating Council, in accord with our statutory mandate and in partnership with other agencies and stakeholders, will continue to assist in developing a process to effectively and efficiently collect and share gang information.

Sincerely,

Ken Reed, Chair

Ken Reed, Chair – Violent Crime Coordinating Council
Michael Goldstein, Chair VCCC Data and Information Subcommittee

I have received and reviewed the Gang Criteria Recommendation that you presented to me on June 14, 2012, and I concur with your recommendation. I, therefore, approve the criteria for adoption by the Violent Crime Coordinating Council.

It is my hope that this will mark the beginning of efforts to train all who would use the criteria, in addition to implementing strategies regarding parental notification and gang prevention and intervention. Posting the criteria publicly will help in these efforts while ensuring transparency.

Thank you for your commitment to this work and for all that you do to assist law enforcement in their efforts to ensure public safety across our state.

Sincerely,

Ramona L. Dohman, Commissioner

Definition of a Gang:

Minnesota Statutes § 609.229 define a "criminal gang" as any ongoing organization, association, or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, that:

- 1) has, as one of its primary activities, the commission of one or more of the offenses listed in section 609.11, subdivision 9;
- 2) has a common name or common identifying sign or symbol; and
- 3) includes members who individually or collectively engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal activity.

Criminal Gang Identification Criteria:

The gang affiliation of an individual is assessed based on involvement in criminal activity and documentation of any of these nine indicators. A single fact may not be used to satisfy multiple criteria. A "gang member" is an individual who is 14 years of age or older and meets at least three of the nine criteria listed below. A "confirmed gang member" is a gang member who has been adjudicated or convicted of a crime of violence as defined in Minnesota Statutes § 624.712, subdivision 5.

#1 Admits Gang Membership

- Admission must be documented with date of admission and name of officer or investigator who heard the admission in a police report, corrections report, field contact memo, or recorded statement.
- A vague admission about membership, for example, "I hang with the ** (gang name) **," should be clarified, and the precise admission documented.

#2 Arrested with a Gang Member

- Individual is arrested with a gang member for an offense consistent with gang-related criminal activity.
- Arrests must be documented in a police report, corrections report or field contact memo and include the date, time, and location of the arrest.

#3 Displays a Gang Tattoo or Brand

- Tattoos and brands must be photographed or described in detail, using factual, non-subjective language. For example: "6 Pointed Star obtained 6 months ago" is a good description; "** (gang name) ** Star" is not.
- To be considered a "gang tattoo" or "gang brand," the gang-related nature of the tattoo or brand must be confirmed by an officer or investigator with adequate training and experience.

#4 Wears Clothing or Symbols Intended to Identify with a Gang

- Suspected gang symbols and clothing worn or possessed must be evaluated in the context of how they are worn or the location they are recovered.
- Clothing, jewelry or items with suspected gang symbols or gang-related monikers should be photographed and, if possible, property inventoried.
- When items cannot be photographed or inventoried, the gang-related items should be described in detail using factual, non-subjective language. For example: "Blue jersey with # 13 on back" is a good description; "S***s jersey" is not.
- Many symbols have multiple meanings and may not be a gang symbol to everyone. The gang-related nature of the clothing or symbols must be confirmed by an officer or investigator with adequate training and experience.

#5 Appears in a Photograph or Image with a Gang Member Engaging in Gang-Related Activity or Displaying Gang Signs or Symbols

- Photographs or images should depict evidence of gang-related criminal activity, such as a person holding a gun and wearing or displaying gang-related signs, symbols, clothing or graffiti.
- A single photograph or image with a gang member, absent any depiction of criminal gang-related activity or displaying gang-related signs, symbols, clothing or graffiti, may count only as one of three documented occasions of association in the previous 12-month period under criterion #8.

- Photographs or images recovered from or depicting gang members obtained by consent or during a lawful search should be inventoried or otherwise preserved and the chain of custody maintained.
- Images from social networking sites or other online sources should be downloaded and identified with the name of the person who posted it (if known), the date of posting (if known) and the URL of the site.
- The gang-related nature of the clothing or symbols must be confirmed by an officer or investigator with adequate training and experience.

#6 Name Appears On a Gang Roster

- Gang rosters on any media, including on clothing or in graffiti, should be photographed, properly preserved, and, if possible, property inventoried.
- There must be sufficient documented information matching the name with a specific individual before this can be counted as a criterion.
- Graffiti containing threats against an individual should be photographed or described in detail.
- A list of suspected gang members generated by a law enforcement agency is NOT a gang roster.

#7 Identified as a Gang Member by a Reliable Source

- Is identified as a gang member by a person with sufficient knowledge of gang activity to qualify him/her as a reliable source.
- Reliable sources must have a demonstrable basis for their knowledge; rumor and speculation are insufficient. Reliable sources may include persons of authority or those with a personal connection to the individual. Examples include:
  - Police Officers
  - Corrections Officers
  - Teachers
  - Family Members
  - Other Gang Members
  - Informants
- Reliable source information must be documented in a police report, corrections report or field contact memo. A reliable source may be called upon to testify about his/her knowledge of an individual's gang involvement.

#8 Is Regularly Observed or Communicates with a Gang Member in Furtherance or Support of Gang-Related Activity

- Family interactions are not considered to be gang related unless there is criminal activity involved.
- Interactions must be voluntary and related to gang activity. For example, a person associating with a gang member because both work at the same location, absent gang-related activity between the two, does not meet this criterion.
- Observations must be documented in a police report, corrections report or field contact memo and include the date, time, and location of the interactions.
- A minimum of three documented observations of gang-related interaction in the previous 12-month period is needed to meet the "regularly observed with" portion of this criterion.
- Correspondence or other communication between gang members, especially to and from prisoners, frequently contains references to other gang members and criminal and gang-related activity. They should be documented and, if possible, property inventoried.
- Messages and/or online conversations about criminal or gang-related activity on social networking sites should be downloaded or otherwise electronically preserved.

#9 Produces Gang-Specific Writing or Graffiti in Furtherance or Support of Gang-Related Activity

- Graffiti should be described in detail using factual, non-subjective language. Example: "132 SGC painted on wall" is a good description; "*** (gang name) ** graffiti painted on wall" is not.
- Graffiti and gang-specific writings found on walls, notebooks or other items should be photographed or described in detail in a police report, corrections report or other documentation and, if possible, should be property inventoried.
- The gang-related nature of the writings or graffiti must be confirmed by an officer or investigator with adequate training and experience.
