1.1 Crime Victims Reparations Board
1.2 Proposed Permanent Rules Relating to Claims

1.3 3050.3200 LOSS OF INCOME.

1.4 [For text of subps 1 to 6, see M.R.]

1.5 Subp. 7. Family members of deceased. Payment of wage loss compensation for a 1.6 parent or spouse of a victim who died as the direct result of a crime usually may not 1.7 exceed six weeks. If the emotional disability of the parent or spouse continues past six 1.8 weeks, the parent or spouse may make a request for an extension of the lost wages. The 1.9 request must include an evaluation by a physician or psychologist stating that there is a 1.10 continuing emotional disability due to the crime and a date by which the claimant is 1.11 expected to return to work. The extension may not exceed 46 weeks. Payment of wage 1.12 loss compensation for children, grandparents, or siblings of a victim who died as the 1.13 direct result of a crime may not exceed ~~one week~~ six weeks. No extension of lost wages 1.14 for other family members is allowed, unless there are extraordinary circumstances where 1.15 the limit imposes undue hardship on the secondary victim.

1.16 [For text of subps 8 and 9, see M.R.]

1.17 3050.3500 FAMILY MEMBERS OF INJURED VICTIMS.

1.18 The board shall authorize payment for ~~up to 20~~ counseling sessions up to the maximum 1.19 amount allowed under part 3050.3800 for a spouse, parent, child, grandparent, or sibling
1.20 of an injured victim if the treatment plan filed under and complying with part 3050.2700
1.21 indicates that the sessions directly benefit the victim.

1.22 When care is needed by a victim and when a determination is made by the board
1.23 that a spouse, parent, child, grandparent, or sibling of the victim is an appropriate 1.24 person to provide care to the victim, the board shall authorize payment to reimburse the 1.25 spouse, parent, child, grandparent, or sibling for lost wages, and reasonable expenses for 1.26 transportation and lodging. Total payment to claimants on behalf of any one victim under

- 2.1 this provision must not exceed ~~$2,000~~ an amount to be determined by the board within
- 2.2 30 days of the beginning of each fiscal year. Computation of lost wages shall be the
- 2.3 same as under part 3050.3200.
