

Brook LaFloe

MMIR Office Advisory Council Member

Brook LaFloe is from the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa and grew up in the Twin Cities of Minnesota.

Brook co-founded Niniijaanis One of Ones LLC, a social enterprise for Indigenous children. She is an educator and entrepreneur with passion for revitalizing culture, and facilitating the growth of local Indigenous artists and economies.

Her academic background includes a Tulane University Bachelors of Science in Neuroscience and Anthropology, a Loyola University of Maryland Master's in Education and two Association Montessori International (AMI) diplomas in Assistants to infancy (birth-3 years) and Primary (3-6 years).

Brook has eight years of experience in educational material making and many years in beadwork and sewing. She enjoys fancy dancing at Powwows, being a sister and aunty, and coaching basketball team MMIW in the summers.
