

Scott Mueller

MMIR Office Advisory Council Member

Scott Mueller is the Deputy Superintendent of the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension (BCA). Mueller previously supervised the BCA's Force Investigation Unit, Metro Regional Office and was previously the Minnesota Financial Crimes Task Force Commander.

Mueller has more than 23 years of law enforcement experience in patrol operations, general investigations, use of deadly force investigations, financial crimes, crime scene, missing persons, abductions and homicides. He has led and participated in numerous homicide, officer-involved use of deadly force and missing persons investigations.

Mueller has been instructing law enforcement in areas such as defensive tactics, firearms, crime scene, missing persons, interview and interrogation, officer use of deadly force, death investigations and law enforcement leadership.

Mueller holds a Master's degree and is an FBI N/A graduate. Mueller has testified as an expert witness in the areas of police use of force, force investigations and firearms related cases.

