Second District Judges involved with Juveniles/Youth:

Judge Gail Chang Bohr Ramsey County

As executive director of CLC from 1995 to 2008, Bohr initiated programs to provide representation to children in the foster care system. In addition to representing children in court, managing and consulting with over 270 CLC pro bono lawyers, and advocating for system reform, she has been co-counsel in 21 federal and state appeals. Bohr participated in the making of the American Bar Association (ABA) DVD, "Interviewing the Child Client," and taught trial advocacy for the National Institute of Trial Advocacy. She served as faculty for CLC's training programs for pro bono lawyers who represented children in the foster care system. She has written many articles on due process rights and the representation of children, and has served on national and statewide committees including the ABA Section of Litigation Children's Rights Litigation Committee Working Group, the ABA Project for Judicial Excellence in Child Abuse and Neglect Proceedings, the Minnesota Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee, the Ramsey County Juvenile Court Children's Justice Initiative, and the Hennepin County Juvenile Court Children's Justice Initiative.
