DISPLAY LOT - respond to statements 2, 7 & 8 only

1.		The dealer keeps all books and records necessary to conduct business at the main dealership location. The dealer maintains copies of the books and records at any additional locations they may have.
2.		The dealer owns the above location or leases the location (minimum one-year lease required). Please attach proof of ownership or Verification of Property Lease Form (PS2407) .
3.		The dealership has a separate and identifiable entrance that leads to the outdoors (See definition of commercial building above). May include a strip mall or commercial garage building. Other entrances that lead from other areas of the building must be closed and lockable (Commercial office space within a commercial building does not meet the statutory license requirement).
4.		The public cannot access the dealership by entering through any other business or residence that is located in the same building as the dealership.
5.		The dealership location is enclosed with floor to ceiling walls, a door that can be shut and locked to close off the entire entrance, and is designated for exclusive use of the dealership.
6.		The dealership location has an address that is separate from any other address in the building.
7.		The dealership has a display area, either indoors or outdoors, large enough to display at least 5 vehicles. This display area is designated for the exclusive use of the dealership and is distinguished from any other business’ inventory.
8.		The dealership has a sign outside of the commercial building, in a public area that identifies the dealership. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The sign must be in letters that contrast sharply in color with the sign background. • If the sign is on a commercial building or a display area, it must be readily legible during daylight hours from the nearest road or street. • If the dealer’s display area is not adjacent to the dealer’s commercial building, the sign at the display area must also indicate where the commercial building is located.
9.		The dealership’s normal business hours are conspicuously posted and readily viewable by the public.
10.		Personnel or automatic telephone answering service is available during normal business hours.
11.		The above location meets all local zoning requirements as indicated on the Zoning Verification Form (PS2421)
12.		(New Vehicle Dealers Only) The dealership has a facility for the repair and service of motor vehicles and the storage of parts, not more than ten miles distance from the principal place of business.
