UP TO $50,000 REWARD

Up to $50,000 is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the death of Frank Kastelic.

Frank Kastelic

On April 18, 1989, Frank Kastelic, 52, an elementary school teacher and part-time U.S. Customs inspector, was found outside his car with a fatal gunshot wound to the head. According to investigators, at approximately 6 a.m., Kastelic's car was bumped at the intersection of Stillwater Road and Algonquin Street in St. Paul. He was shot when he got out of his car to speak with the person who had bumped him. A witness described the vehicle that struck Kastelic's as orange-colored, possibly a 1973 Chevrolet Laguna. Witnesses described a man, approximately 20 to 25 years old, with a stocky build, long black hair, and facial features that indicate he may be a Native American.

Please help bring closure to the family and friends of Frank Kastelic and bring his killer(s) to justice.
